CALL TO WORSHIP

Leader: O God, once again we meet in your house,

People: We remember the work of Martin Luther and other reformers, our spiritual ancestors.

Leader: May their love for you and their devotion to your Word inspire our worship.

People: We recommit ourselves as students of your Word.

Leader: Prod us to become informed and dedicated people:

People: Help us to continue that process of reformation in our church, our lives and as we proclaim the love of Christ.

Leader: May we live by your word and your faith as we worship in the name of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit. AMEN.

CALL TO CONFESSION

+PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Compassionate God, you are forever bending low to hear our cries; you are constantly stooping to help us regain our footing. Why then do we lose our hope so easily? Ever-loving God, you hold us in our grief and receive all our tears and sighs. Why then do we try to cover up our hurt and deny our pain? Faithful God, you call us to be servants and you promise to be with us always. Why then do we turn from the suffering of others and avoid the outstretched hand?

Redeeming God, refashion our trust, soften our hearts, strengthen our will, transform our fear and remake us into the family of God, who are loved, blessed and sent forth in the name of Jesus our Savior. AMEN.

+SILENT PRAYER
