Over the last couple of years some of our church families, neighbors and relatives found it necessary to use the services of Children's Hospital of Philadelphia (CHOP). Because thousands of children visit their many facilities each year, they have an ongoing need for new toys, craft supplies, books, video games, and movies.

For the month of August, the Peace Pantry will start off the year by collecting “Art Supplies” that are used for the children and families while staying at CHOP. CHOP recommends we collect items directly from their wishlist, including brand name, as they know these are the safest items for their patients and families.

Patients at CHOP are often at high risk of acquiring an infection or illness and cannot be exposed to items that could bring them in contact with viruses or bacteria that might compromise their health. For infection control purposes and for the safety of all patients, all donations must be new, recently purchased and safe (non-toxic).

They cannot accept donations of toys made of fabric or wood and are unable to accept used toys, items held in storage, wrapped or hand-decorated boxes or bags, collector’s items, cloth items, stuffed animals, handmade items and food.

CHOP Wish List:

Crayola Branded Products – markers, model magic, colored pencils
Popular character coloring books
Gel pens, Sharpies, watercolor pens
Watercolor/Textile paper, sketch pads
Play-Doh, Play-Doh tools
Sticker scenes
Scissors (child and adolescent sized)
Paintbrushes
Glue (Elmer’s, glue sticks)
All plastic lap desks
Arts & Crafts kits: Melissa & Doug, Crayola, Craft Crush
